GWS-Related Teaching and Research

Selected research projects or publications relevant to GWS:

GWS-related courses that you have taught or intend to develop:

Courses at the graduate and/or undergraduate levels that you would like to teach as a GWS elective in the next three years: (Note that to be included on our list of electives graduate course content needs to be at least 90% gender and/or women-focused, while undergraduate courses must be at least 50%. See also “Guidelines for Gender and Women's Studies Courses and Research Projects”.

GWS Committees

Committees on which you are willing to serve, i.e.: Graduate, Undergraduate, Interdisciplinary (generates and supports interdisciplinary research and thinking; includes speakers, colloquia, film series). We ask that you serve on a committee or teach a course every two or three years.

Will you accept a committee assignment during the current or upcoming academic year?

If approved for GWS affiliation, you may be added to the graduate school faculty as having secondary status in GWS. This would allow you to sit on GWS doctoral committees as a GWS member. If you would be interested in having secondary status in GWS, please include the following information along with your application: (1) Last 3 digits of your UK ID number, (2) Date of your initial appointment (month/day/year), (3) current academic rank, (4) CV in PDF format
